Our Town

Well, Zeke sent us some literature the other day. It is called educational matter and is prepared by Zeke himself along with other Klansmen from over the state. The Klan, it seems, under the direction of Zeke is now undertaking work of education among Klansmen by a series of lectures on "education" to be delivered each week in the 304 Klans in Texas. He says that the Klan does not undertake to tell its members how to vote but "teaches them how to use their influence" which is, of course, a distinction without a difference. Zeke tells us that we can print the lectures in our paper if we so desire. He presents two resolutions one calling upon Klansmen everywhere to get busy and send in a protest to Washington to keep the congress from passing a bill to modify the Volsted act so as to permit the sale of 2.75 per cent beer. Judging from Zeke's record in selling "good licker" at his drug stores in Dallas, we suspicion that he might have in mind some ulterior motive. But to make it appear his position is right he goes on to condemn drug stores that sell liquor and doctors who prescribe it. In one of the lectures a belated admission is made that "The Klan is neither a church nor a political party; yet it is both a religious and a political organization." Of course this means that nothing political is to be attempted but just simply teach the boys how to use their influence. But Zeke springs a new one on us. We didn't think the Klan would go that far but it seems the world is at last to be made safe for bed sheet democracy. In another of the lectures written by a Ku Klux from Plainview it tells how suffrage should be restricted. Here it is: "Personally, we believe, that ONLY good, clean, law abiding men should be allowed to vote; and all known criminals and wilful violators of the law should be disfranchised." It looks like a hard winter, for it goes on to say that "we will strike down with lawful ballots all such who raise their heals for political preferment" Zeke doesn't say but we presume that qualifications will be passed on by the "Imperial Kloncilium" once the Klan is in complete control. Well we believe that on July 26 when the hosts of simon pure demacracy come marching it will be the Heebie Jeebies for Zeke and Little Felix.

Hiram Wesley Evans, imperial wizard of the Klan was at Clevelond during the Republican convention. He set up headquarters there while the party was making up its ticket and adopting a platform. He said that Klan is not in politics but the influence of this political monarchy clubbed the party into a cowardly compromise on the great question of religious freedom and intolerence. The platform is silent on these. It was so written as not to give offense to the Klan in the crucial states. Such a party is not entitled to support by Americans and let us hope that the Democrats when they convene in New York next week will come out in a straight forward declaration for the Know Nothing plank of the fifties.

Only a little over 60 days remain until the 1924-25 term of school begins. Nothing has been done in the way of finally whipping into shape plans for a new school building. Nothing whatever has been said about the negro school situation and it now looks as if the negroes will get nothing. Only $100,000 of the bonds have been sold and this sum will scarcely be sufficient for contemplated needs in the white school. If the city government and the school board do not take care of the needs of the negro school they will fail in their plain duty. Interest attaches to what may become a controversy over the control of the Yoe High school. The building in the will of the late Mrs. Carrie Yoe, was left to three trustees but set aside for free school purposes. It is known that the school board will not undertake a building program until jurisdiction has been established. The position of the board as now constituted will be a contention for the control of the property to be definitely established for all time as the matter of spending public money without the desired understanding is known to be objectionable to a number of the board. In the meantime the bonds have been sold and the money on deposit in a local bank. Last fall the grammar school was in a deplorable condition. The question patrons of the school are now asking will it still be in a deplorable condition when September first arrives a little more than 60 days from now.

JIM FERGUSON TALKS TO VOTERS IN THORNDALE

WANTS HIS NAME BACK SAYS IMPEACHED GOVERNOR OF TEXAS IN ADDRESS.

Jim Ferguson wants his name back. He shows them how he will save the taxpayers $15,000,000 annually and will unmask the Ku Klux if he is elected governor.

He told five hundred people in Thorndale on last Friday afternoon just what he would do if he were elected governor. The people cheered him and when he had concluded his address scores rushed to the platform to shake his hand. Some of the more enthusiastic ones gave him money with which to carry on his campaign.

He said he was tried in a court of justice and found not guilty but tried before a court of politicians and found guilty. He told a pathetic story of his struggles and when he described his dealings with the convicts many people in the audience wept for his pathetic recital of conditions appealed to their emotions.

Jim started his career as a laborer on a bridge gang with the I. & G. N. and told the people he helped to build the bridge across Brushy creek near Thorndale.

Mr. Ferguson carried this county against Earl Mayfield in 1922 for the United States Senator and has always been a strong candidate for any office he sought.

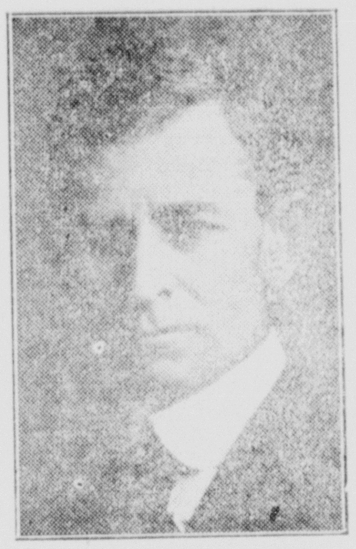
There was no court held this week. The case of State vs. Frank Stach set for trial was continued.

SENATOR EDGAR E. WITT CANDIDATE RE-ELECTION

DOES NOT BELIEVE IN SECRET POLITICAL GROUPS SAYS POPULAR SENATOR.



Senator Edgar E. Witt of Waso was in Cameron Wednesday in the interest of his candidacy for re-election to the state senate. While in Cameron Senator Witt met a number of his friends and in the course of a discussion of political question declared he is opposed to the Ku Klux Klan and its secret political activity.

Senator Witt authorized the Herald to carry his announcement for re-election and in discussing his candidacy gave out the following statement:

"I have served the people of this District for six years in the capacity of State Senator, the first two years of this service being the unexpired portion of the term of which Hon. A. R. McCollum had been elected without opposition. My candidacy is now for re-election to a second term of my own.

Prior to service in the Senate, I served one term in the House as a member of the Thirty-fourth Legislatere. I did not run for re-election to the House. Subsequent to my service in the House I served as City Attorney of the City of Waco under appointment of the Mayor and City Commissioners and resigned as City Attorney to enter the Army and was in the United States Army and stationed at Camp Upton, Long Island, when the war ended. It was while at Camp Upton that a special election was called to elect a successor to Senator A. R. McCollum, this election being made necessary by his death. I was asked by wire and by letter by friends in Waco to allow use of my name as a candidate to fill this vacancy. My present opponent had then

Klan Scored and Defended In Gause Political Meet

The Ku Klux Klan in politics was both scored and defended at a joint discussion of the issue at Gause Saturday in what is conceded to be the opening fight of the Campaign to throw off Klan rule and to defeat its candidates at the polls.

Although it had not been publicly advertised, but known to Klansmen, a Klan speaker replied to the address of T. S. Henderson of Cameron whohad been advertised to speak there by invitation for T. W. Davidson for Governor and to discuss the Ku Klux Klan in politics.

Before the meeting closed it had become an intense debate with Judge W. G. Gillis of Camreon the impromptu entry, answering the call of many voices in the audience.

It was an old time political gathering with the added intensity of feeling engendered in modern politics by the entry of the Klan. People began arriving early in the afternoon. Mr. Henderson was scheduled to begin his address at 3:30. The speeches were delivered from an auto truck across the sidewalk of the main street, a nearby store building casting a shade over the speakers to protect them from the sun.

From the beginning the gathering took on the atmosphere of effervescence accentuated by a fairly even mixture of political enthusiasts representing both sides of the Klan issue and the day brought forth its quota of cat calls and interruptions for speakers when some ardent supporter of the Klan or Anti Klan felt the urge to do his bit in the battle of speech.

More than a dozen Klansmen from Cameron were there and many from Gause and the surrounding section. Likewise the audience had its quota of anti Klansmen from Cameron and surrounding Gause. Candidates mingled in the crowds passing out their cards.

Mr. Henderson began his address about 4 o'clock. He mentioned the name of T. W. Davidson only one time in his speech and that at the beginning when he said he had come to address the Democrats in behalf of Mr. Davidson and to discuss the Klan in Politics. The fact that the name of Mr. Davidson was not mentioned caused little or no comment as the occasion was visioned already as one in which the Klan was to be challenged.

Mr. Henderson began his address by drawing a background of history upon which to pedicate his remark against the participation of the Klan in politics. This he did in his good style of literary recitation as well as eloquence of words. Tracing secret groups from origins in the dark of reddest history for France he described the Knownothing party of the fifties and sixties and how that it became a menace to the country. The modern Klan, he characterized as similar and capable of bringing about the same conditions as the Knownothing. His address was an appeal to reason rather than an excoriation of the Klan although at times Mr. Henderson was more than positive in his characterization of the secret political group. Chiding the Klan for its infidelity to party and nominees he asked them what they would do if the Democrats should nominate a man not to their liking. He said that he had fought McAdoo but could and would support him with good grace if he was named as the standard bearer. Mr. Henderson said that Senator Walsh, an Irish Catholic, had made the greatest contribution in recent years to clean government and to the party when he exposed the corruption in Washington over the Tea Pot Dome scandal, and that he could help McAdoo to win and should be nominated for vice president. He asked the Ku Klux if they would support the ticket if Walsh is nominated. Then again he asked them how loyal they would be if Al Smith were nominated. These questions when analyized constitute, as was the opinion of many, a most striking indictment of the political practices of the Klan, being a charge that the Ku Klux do not evidence the loyalty they should in the case of reverses for their candidates.

Mr. Henderson spoke for two hours and fifteen minutes, a most thorough and well prepared address carrying all the elements of reason and disabused of any passion or prejudice against Klansmen. He was interrupted at times by much applause and at other times by sallies from Klansmen in the crowd who took dislike to remarks he made.

Klansman Slaughter who was said to be a minister and resides in Dallas took the stand amid great applause from Klansmen and proceeded at once to deliver a Klan address. Leveling criticism at Mr. Henderson he drew applause in his characterization of those who oppose the works of the Klan. He said the Klan was not in politics. He declared the Klan had been called into existence to save America from what he termed as sinister forces. He then touted the usual Klan antipathy toward the Catholics and told how the Klan stands for the Public schools, churches and other protestant institutions. He called what Davidson "Tiddledy Wink" and a wave of laughter swept through the crowd as Klansmen heard about new vent to their feelings. Cries from the crowd

Paving Delay Criticised; Council Urges More Speed

The City Council has been assured that the streets will be ready for laying of asphalt by July 1st.

Delay in the street paving has been criticised by the council and assurance has been given that the work will go forward with increased speed at once.

The contractor was at the meeting of the council Tuesday afternoon and proposed to put the streets in better condition for travel as they are if the city would bear a portion of the expense. He was told that the only way the city would feel an interest is for the paving to speed up, that the city would not spend any money in making temporary repairs on the streets. In the down town section the streets are in such condition as to make travel difficult.

A. F. Mitchell, engineer, says that gravel at the rate 300 yards a day is being placed on the streets and that within about ten days the gravel work will be completed. The streets will then have to be shaped for the laying of the asphalt and the prospect is that the paving is certain to be in progress within 30 days or a little more but will extend over into the fall business period.

A few of the lead pipe connections have not been made but the council was told this work is progressing satisfactorily.

Quinn Wallis reported the completion of a survey in various parts of the city to determine the rights of the city to location as to streets and alleys could be properly established. In a number of places the city finds that houses are located in streets and alleys. No little complaint has come to the city in recent years about the condition of the streets in some sections. As the city grows property owners are becoming interested in seeing streets and alleys opened. The city may find however that it is without power to act in some cases as the law of limitation will probably apply in some cases.

The city attorney was instructed to investigate the law and to report back to the next meeting of the council. The last legislature passed a law for the special benefit of cities and towns in dealing with matters of this kind and this law will be looked into thoroughly.

Mayor Davis appointed another board of equalization to take the place of the one appointed two weeks ago which refused to serve. The new board appointed is as follows: D. H. Slaughter, B. Slocomb and J. T. Westmoreland. The first board appointed was composed of J. D. Hefley, F. S. Lesovsky and J. F. Brown.

POLITICAL RALLIES AT MILANO AND BUCKHOLTS

SATURDAY JUNE 21 DATE SET FOR GILLIS AND HENDERSON TO SPEAK.

Saturday afternoon T. S. Henderson will speak at Buckholts for T. W. Davidson for governor and will discuss the Ku Klux Klan in politics. This address will be delivered at 3:30 p. m.

At the same hour Judge W. G. Gillis will address the voters at Milano for T. W. Davidson for governor and will discuss the Ku Klux Klan in politics.

This will be the second of what is planned to be a large number of speeches to be delivered in the county by Mr. Henderson and Judge Gillis.

It is part of the campaign in the county to defeat the Ku Klux and to carry the county for T. W. Davidson for Governor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH HAS A RESIDENT MINISTER

W. G. FRIEND FROMER EVANGELIST, TAKES WORK OF LOCAL PASTORATE.

W. G. Friend, formerly engaged in evangelistic work for the Christian denomination, has accepted the work of the Christian church in Cameron and will become pastor here with a residence in the city.

Mr. Friend has been in Pheonix, Arizona, doing evangelistic work, having left his former home in Iowa on account of the health of his five and a half year old son. Mrs. Friend and the boy are here with Rev. Friend to make their home.

The Christian Church is growing rapidly, recently enrolling more than a hundred in the Sunday school in Sunday morning.

tion of them in America who would be glad to shake hands with Mr. Hendesron. The speaker was severe in handling the subject arousing the enthusiasm of the Klansmen with his flow of speech and invectives.

When he had concluded cries went up from the ranks of the antis for W. G. Gillis. Never turning aside from a challenge nor side stepping a hot political debate the judge responded amid cheers. Resentful of the remarks of Mr. Slaughter only as an enthusiastic opponent of the Klan and called to defend his friends against attack the judge launched at once into a rejoinder which for severity and humor the like has not been heard in any of the hot political campaigns of old Milam.

His criticisms of the Klan leaders [illegible] Zeke Marvin, grand dragon, and his 15 counts of [illegible] shipped from Maryland for which he paid a fine of $20 in federal court, deranged the Kleagle and turned the tide of enthusiasm among the people who cheered the judge and the orator enjoyed his attacks. The Klan orator left before the judge had gotten well into his talk and other Klansmen also left with him.

There were about 300 people to hear the speeches. On next Saturday Mr. Hadenson will speak in Buckholts and Judge Gillis will speak in Milano. Each will speak for T. W. Davidson for Governor and will discuss the Klan in politics.

Rumored That John Mathis Will Reply to Cillis At Milano Speaking Saturday

Circulars have been distributed announcing that W. G. Gillis will speak in behalf of T. W. Davidson for Governor and discuss the Ku Klux Klan at Milano at 3:30 p. m. Satuday, June 21st.

Mr. Gillis is a talented and interesting speaker, and, no doubt will have a large audience.

A circumstance which may tend to swell the crowd is the suggestion that John Mathis of Houston, the erstwhile exponent of the saloons and anti-prohibition forces, will be on hand to reply to Mr. Gillis. Formerly in prohibition campaigns in Milam County Mr. Mathis espoused the cause of the anti's, and is recognized as an able speaker.

At this time it is not known that a joint discussion has been definitely arranged; but a debate between Mr. Gillis and Mr. Mathis would be highly entertaining.

The rules followed by the judges in their awards, and the qualifications required to gain admission to the two classes were as follows:

Class A-1:
1st—House painted and attractive.
2nd—Lawns and yards well kept.

"We, your Committee, asked to pass on the attractiveness of our neighbors' homes, have made the inspection as best we could, and herewith submit the list of homes that seem to us to be worthy of their classification.

"We are hoping that our judgment will be received with charity by all. Mistakes we have made no doubt, and some will be disappointed in their classification, and some that are not classified at all.

Hand painted score cards bore the flags of foreign lands. The winners of progression received as trophies, a Rose for "Merrie England," a Potato for "Auld Ireland," a Match to show that Scotland still is "burning," a tiny windmill from Holland; perfume from France, Maccaroni from Italy, Swiss from Switzerland and Brussels lace from Belgium.

Miss Adams graduated from Yoe High school in May and is the first member of the class to launch out into the Sea of Matrimony. Mr. Johnson is a school teacher by profession and will have a capable assistant in his life partner should she choose to enter the profession.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr.and Mrs. Johnston left for their future home attended by best wishes of many friends.

Each described her "Capsule" and amid much merriment each name was disclosed. Mr. DuBois was the chosen capsule of a popular young lady and he declared that the circle could not have entertained without his being present to move the ice cream and soda pop up and down the hillsides.

In the fall other "capsule" will be distributed.

MORNING HOSPITALITY.

Mrs. J. C. Tucker was hostess on Tuesday morning to a lovely 42 party arranged to honor her guests, Misses Annie and Amy Wade of Belton. The home was beautified with springtime blossoms of varied hues—the decorations blending into the rainbow color scheme which was carried out in the game accessories and table appointments. Roses, daisies, nasturtums, marigolds, sweet peas and zinnias lent their colorful beauty to the attractiveness of the decorations.

Twelve tables were placed for the players each covered with a rainbow tint and centered with a red vase of flowers of the same hue.

After a number of spirited games a salad plate was served with rose mint cups of candy and a fruit drink fitting into the chosen rainbow scheme.

The crystal bud vases of vari-hued flowers were given as table favors.

Among the out of town guests for this beautiful party were Mesdames Boyd Wells of Austin, A. C. Strickland of Cooledge, Eastland of Mineral Wells, Robert Laid of Burlington, Lang Denson of Temple, Paul Jones of New York and Miss Johnnie Patton of Waco.

MISS OLIVE HENDERSON COMPLIMENTED BY ROCKDALE HOSTESS.

On Tuesday afternoon at her home in Rockdale Mrs. E. A. Camp was hostess to a group of friends assembled to do honor to a Cameron violin artist, Miss Olive Henderson. Miss Olive won a scholarship in Baylor in a statewide contest last year and her year's intensive work in that institution has given her a broadened knowledge of her chosen medium of expression. Her violin playing is so much enjoyed in Cameron where her skill and charming personality are so well known that the tribute paid to her by Mrs. Camp in the recital given to her Rockdale friends on Tuesday was a most pleasing tribute to Miss Olive's accomplishments.

Her sister, Mrs. A. C. Strickland of Cooledge came down to be present for the recital and to play her piano accompaniments. The program rendered was most enjoyable.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

On Monday, the pastor, Rev. H. R. McFadyen, began the Vacation Bible school which is a yearly feature of the Presbyterian church of this city.

The work this year is the explanation and the memorization of the catechism of the church. This work has been put on before and finished by quite anumber, so the school is not as large as usual.

Probably the word "Vacation" in the title is a misnomer, also, for real work is being done.

Judge W. G. Gillis, Superintendent of the Sunday school, has offered two prizes of $2.50 each for the best work done in the two classes. Mr. McFadyen has had many years of experience in this kind of work and says that he is having as fine work done this year by some of the children as he has ever had.

The school will cover two weeks, is open to all, and no charges are made.

EYE IS INJURED.

Dave Gann who lives in the Yarrellton community sustained a serious injury to his eye this week while chopping cotton. The hoe hit a rock and a piece of steel 1-8 of an inch long struck him in the eye going through the eye ball and lodging in the pupil of his eye. He came at once to Dr. Taylor where the piece of steel was removed. It was necessary to make an incision in the eye ball so special instruments could be used. The saving of an eye when injured in this manner is a rare thing. However, the condition of Mr. Gann's eye was thought hopeful after the 4th day.

Tri-County Boy Scout Movement Is Organized

The Area Council Organization meeting for the Boy Scouts of America was held in Cameron Tuesday night.

This Area comprises the counties of Milam, Falls and Robertson. Representatives from the towns in this Area met in the First Methodist church as guests of the local Lions Club. A fine dinner was served by the ladies of the Methodist church.

T. A. Fisher, president of the Lions Club, acted as chairman of the meeting. Before the dinner, the delegates joined in singing America. Then Rev. Allen Tooke of Franklin returned thanks.

Paul Webb, City Attorney, made a short address of welcome.

Mr. Fisher then introduced W. P. Knox, deputy regional executive of Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Knox has been working the past two weeks in meeting groups of men over this area in the interest of Boy Scout work. He outlined the plans and purposes of the meeting and then introudced J. P. Fitch of Houston, the regional executive of the Boy Scouts in Texas, Oklahoma and Mexico. Mr. Fitch made a very impressive talk on the importance of the boys' work.

The meeting then proceeded to the organization of a First Class Council. A nominating committee consisting of one man from each town represented, was sent out to prepare nominations for officers for the Council. The following men were recommended for the Executive Board for this Council: T. A. Fisher and F. E. Jackson, Cameron; H. C. Meyer, Rockdale; Lesser Newton Milano; Im. Rudi, Thorndale; J. W. Harlock, Hearne; Herry Greenberg, Calvert; John H. Lomax, Franklin; Joe Rumple, Bremond; Dr. W. S. Smith and E. E. Fanning, Marlin; J. A.Tarver, Rosebud, G. R. Hailey, Lott.

Of this Executive Board, the following officers were selected: T. A. Fisher, President; F. E. Jackson, H. C. Meyer, J. W. Harlock, Harry Greenberg, J. A. Tarver, Vice Presidents; John H. Lomax, Treasurer; E. E. Fannin, Commissioner.

The report of the nominating committee was accepted. The Standard Constitution and By-Laws for local Council was also adopted. A budget of $5,000 to be prorated according to population among the various towns of the area was approved.

It was decided to call the Council "The Falls-Milam-Robertson Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America." It was agreed that the financial campaigns over this Area should be completed by July 1st.

This Council is developed as a means of having the men of the Area become more defintely interested in the welfare of the boys of the Area. Through this organization, it will be made possible to have the services of a trained man who will devote his entire time working with the churches, schools, service clubs and other organizations throughout the Area in developing a greater program for boys.

Mr. Fitch will work with the Executive Board in helping them select a suitable trained man to carry on this work in this Area.

The meeting showed an excellent spirit of harmony and co-operation in the three counties of this Area, and with the perfection of such an organization, a great deal of good will be accomplished among the young manhood of this Area.

Ku Klux Making Fight To Control Democratic Machinery In the County

The Klan is making a fight for control of the Democratic Executive Committee of Milam county. The attitude of the Klan became public Saturday when 36 names were filed, one from each of the boxes included in the number, for places on the committee.

In addition the name of Jim C. Chadwick as a candidate for the office of chairman for the county, was filed by Dr. Jas. Watson, cyclops of the Cameron Klan. Judge W. G. Gillis is now chairman of the executive committee for the county and will be opposed for re-election by Mr. Chadwick.

Dr. Watson, it was said at the office of the chairman, had received filings from different parts of the county. In all there are 46 voting boxes in the county. The Klan is backing 36 candidates and a chairman, enough to control the party machinery in the county if they win.

A number of Klan meetings have been held over the county during the past two weeks, it is said, and the question of candidates for places on the committee is belived to have been discussed. The Klan held a meeting in Cameron Friday night before the last date for filing names for places on the committee.

Klansmen are known to have made visits to boxes in the county and to urge candidates for this committee.

Judge W. G. Gillis is opposed to the Klan and has been an outstanding foe of the organization every since its organization. On last Friday at Gause he made a speech in reply to a minister whose name was given as Slaughter, and who made a Klan talk at a meeting at which T. S. Henderson also spoke against the Klan. The speech of Judge Gillis was heard by a number of Klansmen from Cameron and was considered the most forceful attack yet heard from the platform in this county against the secret political group.

The campaign in this county will be a test of the strength of the Klan for the election will be decided on this question alone. Every candidate, regardless of personalities, who is thought to have the endorsement of the Klan will with limited exceptions be opposed by those having anti Klan views. And those who are said to have the backing of the Anti Klan will be opposed in the same way by the Ku Klux.

announced and was making a personal campaign. I permitted my friends to make this campaign for me while I was in the service as stated. I secured my discharge from the service, the Armistice having been signed, and reached home on election day. I was elected over my opponent by an overwhelming majority, the vote covering the entire District averaging more than five votes to his one.

While a member of the State Senate I was honored by the President of the Senate with appointment on the most important committees of that body, including the Chairmanship of the Committee on Education and the Chairmanship of the Committee on State Affairs. Upon my retirement from the Chairmanship of the Committee on Educational Affairs Miss Annie Webb Blanton, then State Superintendent of Education, wrote me a letter presenting a fountain pen and stating that she was doing so in recognition of the splendid service I had rendered the school children of Texas.

To the Committee on State Affairs, while I was its Chairman, was referred the many measures passed by the House during the regular and special sessions of the Thirty-eigth Legislature, dealing with tax measures. That Committee, in its effort to keep taxes at a minimum, gave its approval to not more than two, as I recall, of these many tax measures and the only one afterwards to meet the approval of the Senate and become the law, as I recall, was the bill known as the Inheritance Tax Bill, levying a state tax on inheritances. In fact this committee and the Senate became so recognized as a death trap for measures increasing taxes that a member of the house has exploited the situation with a poem.

Is have at all times tried to represent the whole people to the exclusion of special interests or groups or organizations of any kind or character and to be conservative and fair. I believe that my constituents have always found me glad to hear them with reference to any matter in which they were interested and to be zealous in the protection of their interests as I viewed them. I have certainly been on the job at all times; having believed in putting no law on the statute books unless its need was demonstrated beyond a doubt; and in only spending what was absolutely necessary to properly maintain our educational and elemosynary institutions and our necessaty departments of govenment.

I am sure I have not always voted on measures as some of my constituents wished, but of course it is impossible for a legislator at all times to voice the view point of all constitutents. I have tried to cast my vote in a way that I thought represented the majority sentiment of my District and the best interests of the greatest number of my constituents. While prohibition or woman suffrage are not now issues before the people, to those who might wish my past record on these issues, will say that my every vote has been for prohibition and for woman suffrage. To those who might wish to know my attitude on the Ku Klux Klan, will say that I am not a member of this organization and do not believe in secret political organizations. Of course I believe in law enforcement and that the enforcement of same should be by the constituted authorities in the Court House.

I am making every effort to get my business affairs so arranged that I can in a short while give the remainder of the time until the election in an active canvas of the District. In the meanwhile I shall appreciate the interest of those who believe that I should be re-elected. The office of State Senator is one of our most important legislative positions. It is not nearly so important to me that I should be elected as it is to the people that they select the best qualified man available to fill this office. When they express their individual choice and preference, if I am re-elected, I promise the best service of which I am capable. If I am not elected I shall still be available to be of whatever service I can, both in private and public to the best interests of my state.

The time is fast approaching when the board will begin its work.

The city let the contract to the Cameron Plumbing and Electric Co., for the construction of sewer facilities in the city park for $198. There were no other bidders for this work.

Complaint was brought to the attention of the council by members that certain boys in Cameron whose names were given had mode conditions unbearable for the care taker at the park and that the care taker had resigned his place. But it was said that he had agreed to work if protection was given him form attacks and abuse by the boys. The city marshal was called upon to aid the city in this protection. It was requested that arrests be made and that all boys caught damaging property or interfering with the care taker of the park be arrested and prosecuted. It was said that no further imposition would be tolerated. This, however, is a complaint that has been registered for several years past and so far as records show no one has been fined during this period for destruction of park property.

W. M. Cobb, editor of the Enterprise, protested the appointment of the Herald as official organ for the city. He said that this favor should have been confered in his publication and charged that discrimination had been practiced. Geo. T. Graves who made the original motion to appoint the Herald denied that any discrimination was practiced and said that the council would not rescind its action. The matter was not discussed and no action was taken by the aldermen. The appointment of an official organ is for twelve months and the custom has been restored for alternation in appointment between the two papers. The Enterpirse will be appointed official organ next year.

Permission was granted to T. S. Henderson, Jr., to block the streets at the court house on Thursday night when T. W. Davidson, candidate for governor spoke in Cameron.

Mr. Henderson asked the council to consider an ordinance he has prepared at an adjourned meeting but the council will not meet again until the first Tuesday in July. The ordinance, he said was to regulate the use of light fixtures, charging that pennies are often placed in switches and that this is dangerous to both life and property. This practice is said to obtain where people burn out fuses and do not replace them but use pennies.

Mr. Henderson also filed with the council a bill for a little over $8 paid out by the water company in repairing a pipe torn up during the course of street work. The city did not allow the bill and let it lay over until the meeting in July.

It was pointed out that the city does not feel responsible for repairs on water pipes where they are not laid to proper depths and that if this bill had been allowed other similar bills already turned down by the council would have to be paid. The city will consider this bill further for action at its regular meeting on the first Tuesday in July.

If this bill is paid it will open the way for other bills of like nature to be paid by the city and this matter will be watched closely by property owners who have had their water pipes torn up by street work because they were not laid to proper depths.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Then I decided to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. GRASSHOPPERS THREATEN TO ANNIHILATE COTTON FIELDS; POISON REMEDY IS GIVEN.

In view of the alarming reports which continue to come in from all parts of McLennan and adjoining counties of the increasing number of grasshoppers, the Times Herald, co-operating with the extension service of A. and M. College, prints the following remedy for fighting these dreaded pests. The remedy is given the endorsement of County Agent E. R. Eudaly of McLennan county.

The formula is as follows:

Wheat bran, 25 pounds; white arsenic or paris green, 1 pound; lemons or organges, 6; low grade cane or sorgham molases, 2 quarts; water, two gallons.

Mix the bran and poison thoroughly while dry. Dilute the molases with the amount of water as named, squeeze the lemon juice into this diluted molasses, then grind the rind of the lemons with a meat chopper and add this also to the liquid. Then mix the liquid thoroughly with the poison bran mixture. After an even mixture has then been obtained, add more water and mix, until a mash is obtained so that when squeezed in the hand it readily falls apart.

Grasshoppers feed in the morning, and as the bait loses its attractiveness when dry, it should be applied so as to be as moist as possible at this time. If to be spread along a fence row to kill the hoppers as they come into the field, it may be applied late in the evening. Where the hoppers are at work over the field, however, the application will have to be made over this field, and as it may dry out during the night, because the ground is hot and dry in the evening, it may be well to wait until morning about sun-up to apply. Where applied along fence rows to stop a migration, it may be well to sow thickly. When necessary to apply to a field, sow in strips several rods wide alternating with unsown strips of about the same width.

Properly applied, this poison mash is fully effective.

Do not omit the fruit using juice and rind as directed. This is necessary to attract the insects.

This amount will sow a strip 8 feet wide and 200 yards long. It should be sown so that it will fall in lumps about the size of blackeyed peas, and should be broadcasted in a fashion about like sowing peas.

To assure success in this poisoning, it should be repeated for several mornings, or until they have been cleaned out. Grasshoppers which have been killed should be allowed to remain there, as the other ones will eat them and will be killed from the poison in the body of the dead ones.

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

COOLIDGE TO GO FORWARD WITH PLANS FOR BONUS.

Washington, June 13.—Directions for administration of the bonus law despite the failure of Congress to appropriate funds for the purpose were given today by President Coolidge in orders to the Government heads affected.

Director Hines of the Veterans' Bureau was instructed to apportion his appropriation for salaries and expenses during the fiscal year 1925 so as to make available for the first six months, commencing July 1, amounts for the administration of the law to be used by the War and Navy Departments.

In a letter today to Secretary Weeks recalling that the bonus became a law over his protest, the President said:

"I am not willing, howver, to let the administration of this law remain practically in abeyance until Congress again convenes, simply because I would not be justified under existing conditions in so doing."

He added that the law in his opinion imposed certain obligations upon the administrative branch of the Government which do not permit of delay in performance."

Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything.

"I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down.

"I was very nervous. . . . I would have a tired, dull headache.

"I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second . . . I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui.

"I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait, when the sun shines, to garden. I am feeling fine."

Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.

Sherwood Condemns President's Veto

In the House of Representatives on May 20 Gen. Isaac R. Sherwood, of Toledo, Ohio, the sole survivor in that body of all the gallant men who wore the blue during the trying years of 1861-1865, paid his respects to President Coolidge for vetoing the Bursum Pension Bill. Besides citing the rewards given for service during the Revolution, Gen. Sherwood called attention to the fact that this was the first time any President had denominated pensions as "class legislation," and mentioned the bill directing the National Government to purchase the Cape Cod Canal as his idea of "class legislation." Quoting from the Congressional Record of May 20, his speech follows:

Mr. Sherwood, Mr. Speaker, President Coolidge in his veto message of the soldiers' bonus bill states that this humane measure is class legislation. The old soldier pension bill is of the same class. This the first time since Geo. Wasrington was President of the U. S. that any President has classed pension legislation for the benefit of soldiers of the Republic as "class legislation."

When George Washington was awarded 15,000 acres of land by Virginia in the Kenahwah Valley on account of his services during the Revolutnonary War, it was not regarded as class legislation. Why, because Gen. Washington's service in the seven years' war was not for a class or a clan, but for all the people of the 13 colonies. When North Carolina gave to each Brigadier General of the Revolutionary War 12,000 acres of land; 7,200 acres to every Colonel, and 3,200 acres to every Captain, it was not regarded as "class lgeislation."

Why, because the patriots of North Carolina held that the soldiers of North Carolina did not suffer the perils and harships and tragedies of the seven years' war for North Carolina alone, but for all the immortal principles in the Declaration of Independence. Hence this generous donation of land was not "class legislation."

When North Carolina gave to Gen. Greene 25,000 acres of land, worth at the time $500,000, it was not regarded as "class legislation." When Georgia, after the war, gave Gen. Greene $22,500 in money it was regarded as real patriotism, and when South Carolina gave Gen. Greene $45,000 for his services it was regarded as a patriotic gift and there is no record that even a Tory claimed that this money gift was "class legislation;" or that the grateful officials of South Carolina had commercialized patriotism.

According to the veto message of President Coolidge, partitism has no commendable attributes but lip service. The Congress of the United States has always, up to recent date thought differently. And every President from Goerge Washington down to Calvin Coolidge—a good ways down—have never proclaimed such atrocious sentiments.

When Gen. LaFayette returned from France, after the war, Congress voted him over $100,000 in money and a whole township of land in Louisiana. This gift was never mentioned as "class legislation."

Let me remind President Coolidge that patriotism or love of country may have a practical element of value, even in this utilitarian age. On March 4, 1965, I stood within 10 feet of Abraham Lincoln and heard him deliver his last inaugural address—his last official message to the American people. I believe I am the only person in official life today who heard that address. I heard him say:

"With malice toward none and with charity for all, let us strive to finish the work we are in, to bind up the Nation's wounds, to care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and his orphans."

(Applause.)

Not a man or woman in the Republic at that time ever thought for one moment that Lincoln only meant "lip service" for the soldiers or for the soldiers' widows or his orphans. Neither did the party of Abraham Lincoln so regard it. The Republican National Convention of 1868 (the first after the war), which met in Chicago May 20, passed a resolution unanimously that "to the brave soldiers who imperiled their lives in the service of their country the bounties and pensions provided for these brave defenders are obligations never to be forgotten." The The Republican National Convention of 1872, which met in Philadelphia June 5, unanimously adopted a resolution that—

"No act of ours shall detract from their justly earned fame or their reward."

All down the years since the war the party of Lincoln has never until President Coolidge ever claimed that patriotism consists only of "lip service" and that humane legislation for the soldiers of the Republic is class legislation.

Evidently the benign spirit of Lincoln dwells no longer in the White House.

President Coolidge claims his veto message is based upon economic consideration. Let us see:

Let us remind the President that his Secretary of the Navy and his Secretary of War and all his Cabinet, with his approval, have indorsed an Army and Navy appropriation this year which calls for about $285,000,000 more money than the entire appropriations of 1916, when we were getting ready for the World War.

Lest we forget, I will give the figures:

In 1916 we appropriated for the Army $119,530,829; we appropriated for the Navy $150,526, 634; a total of $270,057,464. This year Congress has appropriated for the Army $300,000,000and for the Navy almost $295,000,000, approximating $595,000,000.

Let us remind the President that his Secretary of the Navy and his Secretary of War and all his Cabinet, with his approval, have indorsed an Army and Navy Appropriation of $255,000,000, more money than the entire appropriations in 1916, when we were getting ready for the World War.

In view of this damning record of extravagance and waste in the Army and Navy appropriations, the President's claim that he vetoed the old soldiers' pension bill on the ground of economy is a false pretense and a cruel deceit.

Only a few days ago we had a petty illustration of class legislation and the kind of economy we are now realizing. The Cape Cod Canal, or Buzzards Bay, Mass., a project that has been in debate in Congress for lo these many years, was put thru the House of Representatives on a record vote of yeas 149 and nays 131, not voting 146. This project, as estimated, will eventually cost the taxpayers of the United States over $20,000,000.

The project was an Administration scheme, recommended by a MassachusettsSecretary of War, approved, apparently, by a Massachupetts President, put thru the House of Representatives by a Massachusetts committee chairman, and presided over with great dignity and ability by a Massachusetts Speaker of the House, and for the benefit of an originally organized Massachusetts corporation. (Laughter and applause.) This looks more like class legislation than the old soldiers' pension bill.

The President vetoed the old soldiers' pension bill on the grounds of economy. In the meantime he evidently indorses the Cape Cod Canal project, to cost some $20,000,000. He recommends the construction of a memorial bridge across the Potamac River, and is carrying forward a project that will cost the taxpayers of the United States over $20,000,000 building a fleet of war vessels to chase the rancorous rum runners on the Atlantic Ocean. These three projects, all either ornamental or useless will cost the taxpayers a million dollars more than the old soldiers' pension bill which the President vetoed.

Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Atlanta, Franklin and Nashville can speak to us no more with tongues of lurid flame. They are silent for all the coming ages; but their silence is more eloquent of National destiny than all the hoggish oracles of monopoly and greed between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

We should keep the air of the National Capital wholesome and pure and seek to aid by our official conduct that all-absorbing patriotism that characterized the great masters of National destiny who set this Republic on its career.

We can not recall the valiant dead who sleep in 70 National cemeteries and in Flanders fields, but we can make a heroic effort to revive the patriotic spirit and show by official acts of generosity and gratitude that this Nation has not forgotten her vows. (Applause.)

TEN YEARS AGO THEY SAID SHE COULDN'T LIVE

BUT MRS. GREER TURNED TO TANLAC AND GOT IMMEDIATE RELIEF.

"After I had suffered for ten years all the tortures stomach trouble and rheumatism can cause a person, my husband did the least expensive and yet the most wonderful thing in all his efforts to save my ife when he bought me Tanlac," recently said Mrs. N. M. Greer, 20 West Cole St., McKinney, Texas, in a vivid and impressive account of her experience with the famous medicine.

"As long as ten years ago, I was told I couldn't live and at times since then I have been so low that everyone thought I was gone, I could not eat anything but malted milk and butter-milk and I had starved until I was nothing but a shadow, only weighing 90 pounds. Besides that, I had rheumatism so bad that for three years I sat in my chair unable to get up, and I could not lie down for smothering spells. I could hardly bend my back, my arms were so stiff I wasn't even able to lift a cup to my mouth,and my legs were terribly swollen and utterly useless.

"My husband spent thousands of dollars trying to save me and I suffered so I prayed to die, but when Tanlac began helping me, I was one of the happiest women in Texas. In a short time, I was eating heartily and after I had taken seven bottles, I hadn't a sign of stomach trouble or rheumatism; I was walking around as well as anyone, doing all my housework, and my weight had gone from 90 to 140 pounds—a gain of 50 pounds. It has been three years since then and I have now passed my 65th birthday, but I am still feeling fine. All my friends know that what I have said is true and I want the whole world to know that Tanlac saved my life."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

Tan'ac Vegetable Pills are made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

EYE IS INJURED.

Dave Gann who lives in the Yarrellton community sustained a serious injury to his eye this week while chopping cotton. The hoe hit a rock and a piece of steel 1-8 of an inch long struck him in the eye going through the eye ball and lodging in the pupil of his eye. He came at once to Dr. Taylor where the piece of steel was removed. It was necessary to make an incision in the eye ball so special instruments could be used. The saving of an eye when injured in this manner is a rare thing. However, the condition of Mr. Gann's eye was thought hopeful after the 4th day.

Miss Gladys Henry Superintendent of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church, and five members of the Endeavor, Misses Louise and Kathryn Atkinson, Mary Walden, Reba Young, Ruth Kemp and Miss Mary Virginia Atkinson of the Maysfield Society. left Tuesday night for Kerrville to attend the Young Peoples Conference at the Presbyterian Encampment. The Conference will last one week.

Miss Margaret Munroe of Texas Presbyterian College, Milford, was a guest of Miss Ruth Coleman Thursday and Friday of last week. Miss Munroe left Saturday morning for Kerrville to attend the Presbyterian Encampment. She will stop in Cameron on her return from this conference and continue her visit in the Coleman home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cox and their son, Joyce, who has just graduated from State University, are enjoying a motor trip through portions of West Texas.

HIGHWAY BULLETIN BROADCAST ROAD REPORTS WITHOUT EXPENSE TO STATE.

As additional evidence that the State Highway Department is striving to serve the people of Texas to the fullest extent is the announcement that beginning with Monday, June 16th the Texas Highway Bulletin, the official organ of the department, will conduct a road condition report bureau in order to inform those who use the state highways, of the exact condition of the roads over the state.

This service will be rendered in two separate forms. First, the report on the highways will be broadcasted every day from the Broadcasting Station of the Texas Highway Bulletin at Austin; second, inquiries by mail will be answeded.

The report will be broadcasted twice each day. In the morning the report will be sent out in code; in the afternoon, between the hours of six and seven it will be given by voice. The report will be relayed to all sections of the state by amateur radio stations in different cities within the range of the Bulletin broadcasting station at Austin. In answering inquiries by mail the best routes and the condition of the highway to and from various places over the state will be given. Maps of the state highways, with the best routes marked will be enclosed in each reply sent out.

There are one hundred and three state highways in Texas and answers to inquiries will give the best routes over any of these roads, but for the present, at least, the report of only the following highways will be broadcasted:

Highway No. 1, Texarkana to El Paso, distance 871 miles.

Highway No. 2, Laredo to Oklahoma line, distance 550 miles.

Highway No. 3, Louisiana Line to San Antonio, distance 340 miles.

Highway No. 5, Texarkana to New Mexico Line, distance 566 miles.

Highway No. 6, Galveston to Oklahoma Line, distance 340 miles.

Highway No. 8, Port Arthur to Ark Line through New Boston, distance, 368 miles.

Highway No. 9, Amarillo to San Antonio, distance 500 miles.

Highway No. 12, Beeville to Rosenburg, distance 150 miles.

Highway No. 15, Dallas to La. Line through Marshall, distance 157 miles.

Highway No. 16 & 12, San Antonio to Brownsville, distance 330 miles.

Highway No. 19 and 40, Houston to Dallas, distance 253 miles.

Highway 36, Paris to Greenville, distance 50 miles.

This service to be free to the public and without expense to the State.

The Texas Highway Bulletin, the official organ of the State Highway Department, is published without expense to the department. The publication of this bulletin is not a commercial enterprise and it is not conducted for profit. The money received from the advertisements is used to defray the expense of publication and the broadcasting of the road condition report has been made a part of this publication's service to the people of this state in the interest of good roads.

With the touring season for this year now in its initial stage the Bulletin believes that this service which it will render will serve a long felt need for those who use the highways.

MACHINE BUILT TO CATCH GRASSHOPPERS IN WHOLESALE LOTS.

Grasshoppers are still at work in cotton fields around Heidenheimer, according to reports received here yesterday. Some farmers are poisoning effectively but others are reluctant to put out poison because they are "raising a turkey croy as well as a cotton crop."

Much interest has been taken in the report of a machine to kill grasshoppers by farmers at Doole, McCulloch county.

Briefly, it is a 40 by 48 inch perpendicular sceen of oil cloth 20 feet long, and with a trough 8 inches deep and 20 inches wide at the bottom. The whole thing is mounted on skids or runners eight feet long, holding the screen upright and allowing it to be drawn broadside down the cotton rows by horses hitched to each end.

The skids or runners are constructed of lumber two inches thick, and six, eight, ten or twelve inches wide—depending on the height of the young cotton. The trough is filled about two-thirds full of water and kerosene—five parts of water to one part of oil.

As it come down the cotton rows the flying grasshopper jumps against the oil cloth—can't stick and drops into the kerosene and water and he is a goner. Forty gallons of flying grasshoppers were caught in a round made in a field 300 yards across—and they were all dead."

The material for the machine which will cover 50 to 75 acres per day, costs $5 or $10, he says. The trough is constructed with a flat bottom, 20 inches across, eight inches high and 20 feet wide of ordinary lumber. The oil cloth in the screen is draped into the trough to provide for its holding water. The uprights for the oil cloth screen are nailed to the back of the trough, two by four, 48 inches high. The supports for the oil cloth screen are braced from each runner, front and back. To the front of the trough is nailed at each end a two by seven which porjects seven ft. from each end of the trough. To this the horses are hitched, one or two at each end.

Here is the bill of material as figured by Therne:

Two 1x12 ft. long, for bottom of trough.

Two 1x2 20 feet long, for bottom of trough.

THE MAN WHO SAVES YOU MONEY.

WHY NO FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE FOR ALLOTMENT.

(By Gibb Gilchrist, State Highway Engineer.)

Newspapers and county officials have asked the question recently, why the Highway Commission does not have funds to aid every county of the State in the construction of their roads. Some of the county officials have intimated that there is something wrong, because the Highway Commission has issued a statement to the effect that no more aid will be alloted until additional funds, either State or Federal, are in sight. But they say to the Highway Commission: "You should have funds. The Legislature has increased the license fee and imposed a gasoline tax. You also receive several million a year from the Federal Government. Why can't we get aid when we ask for it?"

We will all admit that it is a sound business policy to refrain from promising money to a county when the money is not in sight. In other words, the Highway Commission has a definite sum of money to use in aiding counties to build State Highways within their respective borders. When this definite sum has been alloted and there are no additional funds in sight then certainly the Highway Commission, in fairness to the counties which have already received allotments of aid, should not make additional allotments until they are sure that the funds will be forthcoming when these allotments come due. If this definite sum is over-alloted, then some counties will not receive the full amount which they have been promised.

I suppose the newspapers and county officials that have asked "why are no funds available," desire to know where the funds have gone and to whom these funds have been paid.

All right, let's talk cold facts and figures; but first, in order to thoroughly understand I will define a few of the common terms used.

State Aid is the monies derived from the motor vehicle registration fees, and the gasoline tax. This fund can be used to aid counties in the construction of any State Highway.

Federal Aid is an appropriation made by Congress from the Federal Treasury to be used in assisting the States in the construction of a system of cardinal highways. This aid is apportioned to the State, one-third according to pupulation, one-third according to area and one-third according to total road mileage, and can be used on any State Highway designated by the State Highway Commission, and approved by the Bureau of Public Roads as eligible for Federal Aid.

An Allotment of Aid is a promise by the Commission to pay a certain percentage of a certain amount of State or Federal Aid, toward the cost of constructing a definite section of road of a suitable type. In making these allotments it is necessary for the county to take the initiative by voting bonds and making application for aid.

Texas has been alloted, including the 1925 appropriation, $31,724,212.24 Federal Aid. Since the Highway Department has been in existence there has been collected in license fees and gasoline tax, including the amount collected to date for 1924, an estimated amount for the balance of 1924, $19,062,879.14, making a total of State and Federal Aid of $51,980,539.71. Bear in mind that this figure includes the license fees and gasoline tax for 1924 and the federal appropriation for 1925.

There has been paid to the counties to date $20,471,897.44 Federal Aid, $11,847,111.81 State Aid, total of $32,319,009.25 State and Federal Aid actually paid to the counties. In addition there has been paid $1,193,448.38 for maintenance of State Highways since January 1st, making a total of $33,512,447.00 paid out as aid and for maintenance. There is in the Federal Treasury a balance of $11,252,314.80 to our credit, a balance of $4,658,339.33 in the State Treasury to date, and an estimated amount of $2,557,429.00 to be collected from 1924 registration fees, making a total balance of $18,468,083.13 State and Federal aid. Against this total there are allotments to counties totaling $17,927,657.15, leaving a balance of $540,424.98 which has not been paid out and is not covered by allotments. However there was set aside at the beginning of the year $3,900,000.00 for the maintenance of State Highways for 1924, adding the $1,193,448.00 which has already been paid for maintenance and the $540,424.98 not covered by allotments we get $1,733,873.00. Therefore, it will be seen that after the maintenance budget has been taken from the total funds available that the Highway Commission has already over-alloted aprovimately $1,000,000. This over-allotment can be caried for out of 1024 registration fees as many of the counties will not demand payment of their allotment until next year. It is necessary to make allotments in advance so that counties can prepare plans and estimates and in order that there will be no delay.

However, the Commission feels that it is unwise to make any further allotments until pending litigation involving the Highway Act has been settled or until additional funds from other sources are in sight.

In order to give the citizens of this State some ideas as to demands that are being made upon the State Highway Commission by the Counties of Texas, we give the following list of counties which have voted bond issues for the purpose of building State Highways: Archer, Austin, Baylor, Bowie, Brazoria, Brooks, Callahan, Cameron, Clay, DeWitt, Erath, Fayette, Ft. Bend, Freestone, Galveston, Gonzales, Grimes, Harris, Houston, Jack, Jackson, Jim Hogg, Jim Wells, Jones, Karnes, Madison, Milam, Shackelford, Taylor, Travis, Walker, Waller, Wharton, Wichita, Willbarger, Williamson. These bond issues total $15,310,000.00 and are being held up until State or Federal Aid becomes available and applications from these counties for the sum of $14,975,950 is now pending.

These bonds were voted for the purpose of constructing links in important State Highways and the Highway Commission is anxious to see these roads completed. The Commission realizes the importance of the Highways in all the counties that have voted bonds and would like very much to assist them with State or Federal Aid, but without funds the Commission feels that it would be poor business to over-allot the funds in sight to any greater extent than has already been done.

The question will probably be asked, why funds were not reserved for the larger counties that had not received their maximum. The reason is this, that the Commission desired to complete the system of State Highways as rapidly as possible and as there were many important links in the system which counties had voted bonds to build, the Commission thought it best to allot aid to these sections in order that construction would be started as soon as possible. A further reason is that the Commission, though required to build these roads through county Commissioners Courts, have tried to disregard county lines, and to look upon the State system of Highways from a statewide standpoint, taking into consideration their relative importance to the State as a whole.

This is our explanation of, "why there are no funds available," and if not satisfactory to those who asked this question, we would like to ask, "what would you have done, had you been the Highway Commission?"

LYNCH DAVIDSON SAYS SOCIALISM IS AN ISSUE

SCORES T. W. DAVIDSON IN STATEMENT ON ISSUES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Dallas, Texas, June 12.—Lynch Davidson, candidate for Governor, went thru Dallas Wednesday in his flivver, bound for the panhandle section of Texas, stopping long enough to say: "Being the leading candidate and assured of my entrance by a wide margin into the second primary, I have about decided to spend the remainder of the campaign defending the name of Lynch Davidson from being branded with Non-partisan Leagueism and socialism."

The Houston candidate will be accompanied in the present itinerary by his wife and daughter, the party traveling overland as far northwest as Lubbock.

Of the present campaign situation Lynch Davidson declared: "I find the democrats of Texas amazed at the encroaching forces of socialism now beating into their ranks, led by T. W. Davidson and the Nonpartisan League. In fact, there is almost a general feeling of dismay at the effrontery with which the subtle scheme of the Nonpartisan League are being foisted upon us."

Mentioning the fact that T. W. Davidson, as he put it, sought to eliminate the 35c tax limit and "turn the legislature loose on our property for taxation purposes, plunge the state into the insurance business, lend its billion-dollar credit for building rural and urban homes, shift taxes from improved property onto undeveloped lands, and wipe out the $7,000,000 tax arrears debt of tax slackers," the candidate added:

"I view the campaign with regret from the standpoint of the only business man who has ever offered for the governorship in Txas for this reason. I presumed when I entered the race that it was to be one of construction. I had hoped each candidate might vie with the others in offering something perspective of the present bankrupt condition of our State's affairs, and the remedy. Now instead of witnessing a constructive campaign, Texas is looking upon a fight of Conservatism, led by myself, against Socialism, led by T. W. Davidson and his Nonpartisan League—Klan combination. We stop to ask the question of ourselves: what are we coming to? Must we postpone our constructive effort to build a great empire in Texas, to drive out the socialists? When are we to be given opportunity of strengthening our internal affairs? When is democracy not to be endangered by the inroads of blocs, groups, cliques and factions? In France the 'left wing' prevails; in England the House of Commons debates seriously on permitting a renter to remain indefinitely in his landlord's house on affidavit of incompetency to pay. The Brookharts, LaFolletts and Magnus Johnsons are disrupting our republican form of government. The Nonpartisan League wrecked North Dakota, slunk into Oklahoma under the cloak of Jack Walton, and now, led by T. W. Davidson, has reared its ugly head in Texas. It is not surprising, then, that we must look with alarm at the encroaching forces of evil."

"Lynch Davidson added that he also regretted political horse-swapping had become so much in style in striving for gubernatorial office.

"Take T. W. Davidson for instance" he said. "He has traded so much in the vain effort of election that he even now has the brand of the Ku Klux Klan. What wouldn't I give to meet opponents in this race who traded nothing but constructive statesmanship for votes of the democrats of Texas. Yet it becomes the political style to juggle your lieutenant governorship with the State University presidency that you may eventually become governor by accession. As in the case of W. W. Fitzwater, head of the Nonpartisan League in Texas, he must be traded to Ku Klux Klan by T. W. Davidson as a delegate to the democratic national convention, so that a Klan—T. W. Davidson alliance may be made. He likewise bartered with another clique, promising not to enforce the open port law. He seeks the support of every tax slacker in Texas by offering Senate Bill 126, wiping out a just debt to Texas of $7,000,000 representing tax arrears.

"Politically it means nothing over which I should worry. My success in the race is assured, but it would have meant so much to Texas if this campaign could have been a contest of principles, rather than one of barters, trades and socialism. Nothing pleases me more than to have the typical Texas democrats grasp me by the hand wherever I go and exclaim, "Lynch Davidson — anti-bloc, anti-clique, anti-klan; you are just a plain democrat." That is what means something."
